

The Little Bird

The little bird is calling
It wishes to return
The little bird is wounded
It cannot fly but yearn

It's captured by the vultures
Crying bitterly
Oh, to see my nest again
Oh, to be redeemed

The little bird of silver
So delicate and rare
Still chirps among the vultures
Outshining all that's there

How long, how long it suffers
How long will it be
When will come the eagle
And set the little bird free

The little bird is Yisrael
The vultures are our foe
The painful wound is Galus
Which we all feel and know

The nest is Yerushalayim
Where we yearn to be once more
And the eagle is Mashiach
Whom we are waiting for
